PROFILE

Dale is often described by friends as a storyteller.

He is a popular public speaker and has spent his life telling stories on the big and small screen.

Dale has experience writing and producing corporate communications including:

- Newsletters
- Webinars
- Training Programmes
- Press Releases
- Video Production
- Album and compendium publications

You may not require the full services of a marketing, advertising, or PR agency. A project contract with Dale Bradley will produce quality professional communications and impress your stake holders.

Dale has developed a unique presentation designed to preserve important memories. As your historical curator he will research, write and produce:

- MY LIFE STORY – is a video and high-quality picture book featuring the highlights of your life story for future generations to enjoy.
- MY PROJECT STORY – is a video and high-quality picture book that features the highlights of your business or community project for future generations to enjoy
